

Activity type	Workshop Title	Description	Speaker	Organization	Audience	Speaker Bio	Start time	End time	Location
Workshop 1	Every Day Counts: Strategies for Tackling Chronic Absenteeism and Boosting Attendance	Chronic absences, whether excused or not, can have a detrimental impact on a student's academic success and overall well-being. This workshop aims to equip educators, administrators, and support staff with effective strategies to address this issue head-on. By fostering a positive school culture, implementing targeted interventions, and collaborating with families, we can create an environment where every student feels motivated to attend school regularly.	Anita Sedivy	Bob Jones University	All	Anita holds a BS in elementary education and a MEd in secondary education. She has taught in Christian education for 30 years teaching a variety of math courses from 6th grade math to high school algebra both in the classroom and through distance learning. She also has experience as a childcare director and preschool administrator. When she is away from school she enjoys serving in her local church, reading, cooking, and spending time with her husband and daughter.	9/26/2024 10:20	9/26/2024 11:10	306
Workshop 1	Financial Foundations for God's Glory	Too much month at the end of your paycheck? Get help in this workshop that can help bring peace to a common money challenges. There are only four things you can do with your money: Live, Give, Owe or Grow. We will briefly cover all four with special emphasis on Living and Owing from a Biblical Worldview.	Ben Franklin	Franklin Wealth Advisors	All	Ben is the Managing Director and Senior Wealth Advisor at Franklin Wealth Advisors, Inc. Personally, he has almost 4 decades of experience in the financial services industry. He has provided comprehensive financial planning services to clients in all walks of life. Ben and his wonderful wife Charlotte have been married for over 37 years and are the proud parents of four grown sons and the even prouder grandparents of fourteen living grandchildren. Ben enjoys traveling, visiting his grandchildren, running, golfing, sudoku, and watching old tv shows (Gunsmoke, Bonanza, Matlock, Columbo). Ben is very active with Nehemiah Project International Ministries. Through NPIM, he has taught courses in Biblical Entrepreneurship in four states, as well as South Africa. He is also a member of Kingdom Advisors, the National Association of Christian Financial Counselors, the Financial Services Institute, and is a past president of the Central IL Council of the Financial Planning Association.	9/26/2024 10:20	9/26/2024 11:10
Workshop 1	Walking the Tightrope	Striking the right balance between job and family while keeping faith front and center.	Beth Rebert	First Baptist Church	All	Beth is married to Pastor Paul Rebert of First Baptist Church, Danville. She has been a teacher for 17 years and has a passion for all things little people! Beth loves coffee, ice cream, travel, and being mom to Breleigh, a freshman in college, Remington, a senior in high school, and Kylie, now in eighth grade.	9/26/2024 10:20	9/26/2024 11:10
Workshop 1	Spelling S-U-C-C-E-S-S	How can we help our students have spelling success? Is teaching spelling still important in this digital age? Discover interactive techniques that will help you teach and review spelling in appealing and beneficial ways that enable your students to learn to be dependent on their own spelling skills, not just on "spell-check."	Brooke Greening	Abeka	Elementary	Miss Brooke Greening taught third grade at Pensacola Christian Academy for seven years before moving into administration in 2007 to serve as principal for 2nd and 3rd grade. In this position, her heart and personal goal is to mentor her faculty and guide them to be more effective in teaching, management, and relationships with students and their parents. Her daily observations in classrooms supply her with many new and fresh ideas which she enjoys sharing with other teachers and adding to her own repertoire as she continually strives to learn and grow. Miss Greening earned her BS in Elementary Education and MS in Educational Administration from Pensacola Christian College.	9/26/2024 10:20	9/26/2024 11:10
Workshop 1	What's so Christian about Math?	Many teachers believe that biblical integration in math is not possible. This thinking results from looking at math in the wrong way. It also results from depending on classroom practices that do not support deep learning. Discover ways to achieve core math objectives while also strengthening your students' faith.	Dr. Bryan Smith	BJU Press	All	Bryan has worked in Christian education for over 30 years. He has been a classroom teacher as well as a textbook author. Currently, he serves BJU Press as director of Biblical Worldview shaping. In this position he assists authors and teachers in the work of forming a biblical worldview in the classroom. Bryan holds a PhD in Old Testament interpretation.	9/26/2024 10:20	9/26/2024 11:10
Workshop 1	Teaching Problem Solving Skills in the Preschool Classroom	Preparing students for Kindergarten and life, Gretchen shares methods and materials which equip children to problem solve social conflicts with minimal adult intervention.	Gretchen Huesmann	Independent	Early Elementary	Gretchen Huesmann began her speaking ministry as a young mom involved in mom's groups and leading Bible studies, in between teaching littles in the classroom and raising her family. She is a long-time blogger and an award-winning author penning articles, devotions, and children's stories. Gretchen enjoys reading, walking, gardening, cooking, and exploring the outdoors. She and her husband have raised four amazing adult children who share their love of music, nature, and travel.	9/26/2024 10:20	9/26/2024 11:10
Workshop 1	Science Fair or Unfair: What Judges Are Watching For	If your students compete or you'd like to hear more about competing in science fair(s), this session is for you! Delve into rules, timelines, and juggling projects within your curriculum.	Jennifer Miller	BJU Press	Secondary	Jennifer holds an MS in educational leadership and has been an educator since 1997. Her experience includes both elementary and secondary classroom teaching, technical training for adult learners, and school administration. Jennifer as a love for teaching science, as she spent nearly half of her teaching career as a secondary science teacher. She is currently a national consultant for BJU Press. When she's not teaching, Jennifer enjoys time with family (especially her two grandchildren), photography, and spending time at the beach.	9/26/2024 10:20	9/26/2024 11:10
Workshop 1	IACS General Meeting	Description	Mark Mcvey	IACS	All	Mark McVey serves as the Executive Director of the Illinois Association of Christian Schools. He is also the High School Principal and Associate Administrator at Schaumburg Christian School, with over 40 years of service in Christian education.	9/26/2024 10:20	9/26/2024 11:10
Workshop 1	How to Identify if my Child is Struggling?	Learn specific learning and instructional strategies that teachers and parents can implement to enhance and empower a child's learning. We'll discuss checklists to identify problems your child may be experiencing and specific strategies to help empower them.	Marlene Reed	Bob Jones University	All	Mrs. Reed has earned a BS in Speech and Language Pathology/Audiology, a BS in Elementary Education, and a MS in Special Education. She has completed training as an Applied Behavior Analysis (ABA) line therapist and works with children who have autism. She has been an educator for more than 30 years teaching future special education teachers on the college level and K-12 students in regular classrooms plus teaching at M&G's summer art day camp Kids Create! and serving as a Learning Disabilities (LD) resource teacher and Behavioral Disorders (BD) teacher. She has taught learners with dyslexia, LD, BD, attention deficit/hyperactivity disorders (ADHD), intellectual and development disorders (IDD), and autism spectrum disorders (ASD).	9/26/2024 10:20	9/26/2024 11:10
Workshop 1	Biblical Counseling for a Christ-Centered Classroom	How Biblical Counseling changes our goals, procedures, and results in the Christian School.	Rod Hutton	Faith Biblical Counseling	All	Kathy Hutton and her husband Rod have been members of Faith Church in Lafayette since 2015. She graduated from Faith Bible Seminary with a Masters in Biblical Counseling in June 2022. She began working for Faith Christian School as their Biblical Counselor in August 2022. Kathy also serves with her husband who is the Pastor of Faith North Campus and serves as a Biblical Counselor with Faith Biblical Counseling Ministries and Vision of Hope, a women's residential counseling ministry. Kathy and Rod have 5 children, Chris, Tim, Malia, Gracie and Josie.	9/26/2024 10:20	9/26/2024 11:10
Workshop 2	Keeping an "A" above average: Avoiding Grade Inflation	When a grade on a report card does not accurately reflect the overall ability and performance of a student it can be detrimental to the student, the teacher, and a school's program. Grade Inflation is a practice that institutions are experiencing throughout the world. This session will explore methods to assist teachers in achieving academic excellence and appropriate rigor, while maintaining a balance of compassionate concern for each student.	Anita Sedivy	Bob Jones University	Upper Elementary, Secondary	Anita holds a BS in elementary education and a MEd in secondary education. She has taught in Christian education for 30 years teaching a variety of math courses from 6th grade math to high school algebra both in the classroom and through distance learning. She also has experience as a childcare director and preschool administrator. When she is away from school she enjoys serving in her local church, reading, cooking, and spending time with her husband and daughter.	9/26/2024 11:25	9/26/2024 12:15
Workshop 2	Make it Count Review Time	How can we avoid a review time that falls flat? Discover effective strategies for making review time count and incorporating effective questioning techniques.	Brooke Greening	Abeka	Early Elementary	Miss Brooke Greening taught third grade at Pensacola Christian Academy for seven years before moving into administration in 2007 to serve as principal for 2nd and 3rd grade. In this position, her heart and personal goal is to mentor her faculty and guide them to be more effective in teaching, management, and relationships with students and their parents. Her daily observations in classrooms supply her with many new and fresh ideas which she enjoys sharing with other teachers and adding to her own repertoire as she continually strives to learn and grow. Miss Greening earned her BS in Elementary Education and MS in Educational Administration from Pensacola Christian College.	9/26/2024 11:25	9/26/2024 12:15

Activity type	Workshop Title	Description	Speaker	Organization	Audience	Speaker Bio	Start time	End time	Location
Workshop 2	Teaching English Christianly	Can writing, grammar, and literature be taught Christianly? Absolutely – but only if we approach these subjects in the right way. Effective biblical integration in English focuses on Christian worldview shaping. Students learn Christianly as they are taught to see English from a Christian worldview. Learn about effective practices that will enable you to achieve core language arts objectives in a distinctively Christian way.	Dr. Bryan Smith	BJU Press	Secondary	Bryan has worked in Christian education for over 30 years. He has been a classroom teacher as well as a textbook author. Currently, he serves BJU Press as director of Biblical Worldview shaping. In this position he assists authors and teachers in the work of forming a biblical worldview in the classroom. Bryan holds a PhD in Old Testament interpretation.	9/26/2024 11:25	9/26/2024 12:15
Workshop 2	The Day the Crayons Came to School	Just as a box of crayons is full of various colors, today's classroom is a diverse mix of students, each with their own unique learning needs, styles, and interests. Come learn some tools to cater to this diversity in your classroom.	Dr. Melissa Tucker	Boyce College	Elementary	Dr. Melissa Tucker is a professor for the Teacher Education Program at Boyce College with 36 years of experience in the education field. She has taught in public school, been an administrator of a Christian school, spent two years in Russia teaching students English, and just returned from a small village in Alaska where she taught K-6. Since 1988, she has traveled to various countries to work with churches in developing children's and women's ministries. Dr. Tucker brings a passion for solid Christian education in schools.	9/26/2024 11:25	9/26/2024 12:15
Workshop 2	Tips for Testing Coordinators	Not every school has a staff member with the formal title of "Testing Coordinator," but the work done by the person who oversees the school's formal testing program is an important task. This workshop focuses on the Iowa testing program of the AACPS and provides numerous helpful and money-saving tips for the person in charge of the school's testing program. School administrators, office staff, and teachers will all benefit from this session.	Gary Peltier	AACS	All	Gary Peltier, Officer for Assessment and Business Operations of the AACPS, holds undergraduate and graduate degrees in education from Bob Jones University. He has served in Christian education as a teacher, assistant school administrator, state association executive director, and board member of the AACPS. He currently serves as a member of the AACPS Accreditation Commission. He began working in the AACPS national office in 2015 and primarily manages the achievement testing program.	9/26/2024 11:25	9/26/2024 12:15
Workshop 2	What I learned about Food, Nutrition, and Childhood Behavior	Gretchen shares her personal story of trial and error when dealing with problem behaviors in the classroom. She shares practical nuts and bolts solutions found in the grocery store and your kitchen to implement in the classroom and share with parents.	Gretchen Huesmann	Independent	Elementary	Gretchen Huesmann began her speaking ministry as a young mom involved in mom's groups and leading Bible studies, in between teaching littles in the classroom and raising her family. She is a long-time blogger and an award-winning author penning articles, devotions, and children's stories. Gretchen enjoys reading, walking, gardening, cooking, and exploring the outdoors. She and her husband have raised four amazing adult children who share their love of music, nature, and travel.	9/26/2024 11:25	9/26/2024 12:15
Workshop 2	Think Like a Proton: Stay Positive About Teaching Science	Science can be scary! From creepy crawlies to explosions, if science isn't your "thing", it can seem an overwhelming and daunting task to fit it into your day. If that describes you, or if you're just looking for a few simple refresher ideas for elementary science, please join us for this session on philosophy, mindset, and ways to simply (and sanely) imbibe a love of science into your students!	Jennifer Miller	BJU Press	Elementary	Jennifer holds an MS in educational leadership and has been an educator since 1997. Her experience includes both elementary and secondary classroom teaching, technical training for adult learners, and school administration. Jennifer has a love for teaching science, as she spent nearly half of her teaching career as a secondary science teacher. She is currently a national consultant for BJU Press. When she's not teaching, Jennifer enjoys time with family (especially her two grandchildren), photography, and spending time at the beach.	9/26/2024 11:25	9/26/2024 12:15
Workshop 2	History's Mysteries: Using A Christian World View	Knowing how often students tend to view history as isolated facts, this session assists history teachers in forming the necessary connections for students to see how lessons learned from historical facts help guide us in policy-making decisions today.	Mike Smith	Abeka	Secondary	Mr. Mike Smith has been teaching junior high and high school history and Bible classes at Pensacola Christian Academy since 2005. Although students enjoy his quirky humor and engaging teaching style, it is his evident and sincere care for each of them that has earned him the reputation of beloved teacher, not just for students at PCA but for the many he has taught as a video teacher through Abeka Academy. In addition to his school responsibilities, he teaches a weekly adult Sunday school class, leads the four-year-olds in Master Clubs, coaches JV boys basketball, and acts as the camp chapel speaker in the summers for Camp of the Pines, a Christian summer camp for eight to twelve year olds.	9/26/2024 11:25	9/26/2024 12:15
Workshop 2	Unlock the Potential of Your School's Data!	In today's educational landscape, data-driven decision-making is more critical than ever. Administrators are tasked with making informed decisions that impact student outcomes, resource allocation, and overall school performance. Microsoft's Power BI provides an affordable, comprehensive solution for visualizing and analyzing data, enabling you to make strategic decisions with confidence. This seminar is ideal for anyone who is looking to leverage data analytics to improve enrollment, school management, student outcomes, or even sports team insights.	Paul Fuller	Core BTS	All	Paul Fuller is a Director of Consulting Services for Core BTS, a full-service information technology consulting firm. Paul thrives off helping clients solve their most pressing challenges by delivering data-driven solutions that connect people, processes, and technology to defined business outcomes. Paul has more than 25 years of experience in app development, business intelligence, and data warehousing and is the author of the recently published Beginning Power BI for Business Users: Turning Data into Insights. Paul is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin – Oshkosh with a bachelor's degree in business administration. Paul has also been a pastor for nearly 20 years. He currently is pastor at Edgewood Church in Danville, Illinois. Paul holds a Master of Divinity degree from the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary.	9/26/2024 11:25	9/26/2024 12:15
Workshop 2	Understanding the Student's Heart	Understanding and addressing the heart behind behavior problems and conflict.	Rod Hutton	Faith Biblical Counseling	All	Rod Hutton and his wife Kathy have been married for 35 years. The Huttons came to Lafayette on assignment with the Navy to Purdue University which afforded the opportunity to attend Faith Bible Seminary. In 2018, Rod retired from Naval Service and joined the staff to lead the efforts in opening and operating the Northend Community Center and in 2019 he was ordained as a pastor with Faith Church. In 2024, he transitioned to the role as Director, Faith Biblical Counseling Ministries and Vision of Hope, a women's residential counseling ministry.	9/26/2024 11:25	9/26/2024 12:15
Workshop 3	Cheating 101: Preventing Popular Methods of Cheating, Plagiarism, and Other Questionable Practices	We'll talk both high tech and low tech methods students might employ, along with practical suggestions to prevent such behavior.	Anita Sedivy	Bob Jones University	Upper Elementary, Secondary	Anita holds a BS in elementary education and a MEd in secondary education. She has taught in Christian education for 30 years teaching a variety of math courses from 6th grade math to high school algebra both in the classroom and through distance learning. She also has experience as a childcare director and preschool administrator. When she is away from school she enjoys serving in her local church, reading, cooking, and spending time with her husband and daughter.	9/26/2024 1:40	9/26/2024 2:30
Workshop 3	Growing and Managing God's Surplus	Concerned about how to even begin thinking about retirement on a small budget? In this session, we will discuss Giving and Growing your money from a Biblical Worldview.	Ben Franklin	Franklin Wealth Advisors	All	Ben is the Managing Director and Senior Wealth Advisor at Franklin Wealth Advisors, Inc. Personally, he has almost 4 decades of experience in the financial services industry. He has provided comprehensive financial planning services to clients in all walks of life. Ben and his wonderful wife Charlotte have been married for over 37 years and are the proud parents of four grown sons and the even prouder grandparents of fourteen living grandchildren. Ben enjoys traveling, visiting his grandchildren, running, golfing, sudoku, and watching old tv shows (Gunsmoke, Bonanza, Matlock, Columbo).	9/26/2024 1:40	9/26/2024 2:30

Activity type	Workshop Title	Description	Speaker	Organization	Audience	Speaker Bio	Start time	End time	Location
Workshop 3	Help! My Students Are Really Confused!	Students these days are distracted, unmotivated, and easily led. The education they need is not interesting to them, and the influences they definitely don't need are taking them down the wrong path. What can we do to help them? Biblical worldview shaping. We need to engage students in learning experiences that challenge what they assume about life. We need to model for our students a biblical way of responding to wrong thinking and living. We need to show students how to develop the skill of Christian discernment.	Dr. Bryan Smith	BJU Press	Secondary	Bryan has worked in Christian education for over 30 years. He has been a classroom teacher as well as a textbook author. Currently, he serves BJU Press as director of Biblical Worldview shaping. In this position he assists authors and teachers in the work of forming a biblical worldview in the classroom. Bryan holds a PhD in Old Testament interpretation.	9/26/2024 1:40	9/26/2024 2:30
Workshop 3	Developing an Organized Life	This session focuses on values, principles, and habits that will help you faithfully steward the relationships and responsibilities of your life.	Dr. Cary Schmidt	Independent	All	Cary serves as the Senior Pastor of Emmanuel Baptist Church in Newington, CT. He and his wife, Dana, have been blessed with three adult children and six grandchildren, and they have enjoyed thirty-five years of marriage and ministry together. Cary has followed Jesus for nearly 50 years, and his passion is to love God, love his family and church family, develop spiritual leaders, and point people to Jesus Christ through teaching and writing. Cary completed his Master's work with Veritas Baptist College in theology and his Doctorate with Liberty University in expositional teaching and preaching. He has authored or co-authored more than thirty books and hosts the Growing in the Gospel YouTube Channel. Connect with Cary at caryschmidt.com.	9/26/2024 1:40	9/26/2024 2:30
Workshop 3	The Use of DataManager	DataManager™ is a powerful online resource for managing the Iowa and CogAT assessment programs. DataManager™ allows school staff to construct and view reports, interpret and analyze results, and access digital resources.	Gary Peltier	AACS	All	Gary Peltier, Officer for Assessment and Business Operations of the AACS, holds undergraduate and graduate degrees in education from Bob Jones University. He has served in Christian education as a teacher, assistant school administrator, state association executive director, and board member of the AACS. He currently serves as a member of the AACS Accreditation Commission. He began working in the AACS national office in 2015 and primarily manages the achievement testing program.	9/26/2024 1:40	9/26/2024 2:30
Workshop 3	Fresh Ideas for Elementary Music	Feeling like your lesson plans could use a new tempo? Come discuss elementary music and leave with resources to your add new life to music foundations. Have a favorite lesson plan to add to our discussion! Bring it with you!	Jennifer Taylor		Elementary	Jennifer graduated from Southern Illinois University in 1998 in music education. She has taught for 22 years in K-12 general music, band, chorus, guitar class, and theatre. She now focuses on teaching private lessons, directing a pep band for local homeschoolers, and music in the church. Jennifer has been married for 26 years and has twin 16-year-old boys. She loves spending time with family, physical fitness, country bike rides, kayaking, and mornings on the porch with her Bible, yellow lab, and a good cup of coffee.	9/26/2024 1:40	9/26/2024 2:30	Music Suite
Workshop 3	Using the Five Themes to Teach Geography	There are so many approaches to teaching geography. Increase your effectiveness using the 5 themes of geography: Place, Location, Human-Environmental Interaction, Movement, and Regions.	Mark Felderman	Faith Baptist Bible College	Secondary	Mark Felderman is an instructor and the Alumni Coordinator at Faith Baptist Bible College in Ankeny, Iowa. With 29 years of experience as a high school social studies teacher, Mark has also worked for Iowa Governor Kim Reynolds. His love for geography is evident in his teaching, where he emphasizes the Five Themes of Geography—Place, Location, Human-Environmental Interaction, Movement, and Regions—as a dynamic and effective framework to explore the world from a biblical perspective.	9/26/2024 1:40	9/26/2024 2:30
Workshop 3	How do I Integrate Young Learners with Disabilities?	This workshop introduces visual schedules and social stories to teach young learner skills who have autism, intellectual developmental disabilities, or who has other developmental problems.	Marlene Reed	Bob Jones University	Early Elementary	Mrs. Reed has earned a BS in Speech and Language Pathology/Audiology, a BS in Elementary Education, and a MS in Special Education. She has completed training as an Applied Behavior Analysis (ABA) line therapist and works with children who have autism. She has been an educator for more than 30 years teaching future special education teachers on the college level and K-12 students in regular classrooms plus teaching at M&G's summer art day camp Kids Create! and serving as a Learning Disabilities (LD) resource teacher and Behavioral Disorders (BD) teacher. She has taught learners with dyslexia, LD, BD, attention deficit/hyperactivity disorders (ADHD), intellectual and development disorders (IDD), and autism spectrum disorders (ASD).	9/26/2024 1:40	9/26/2024 2:30
Workshop 3	Vibrancy in The Bible Class	It may be easy for a Christian school to underestimate the value of the Bible class. This session will remind us of the importance of the Bible class and the role the teachers should be playing in that class.	Mike Smith	Abeka	Secondary	Mr. Mike Smith has been teaching junior high and high school history and Bible classes at Pensacola Christian Academy since 2005. Although students enjoy his quirky humor and engaging teaching style, it is his evident and sincere care for each of them that has earned him the reputation of beloved teacher, not just for students at PCA but for the many he has taught as a video teacher through Abeka Academy. In addition to his school responsibilities, he teaches a weekly adult Sunday school class, leads the four-year-olds in Master Clubs, coaches JV boys basketball, and acts as the camp chapel speaker in the summers for Camp o' the Pines, a Christian summer camp for eight to twelve year olds.	9/26/2024 1:40	9/26/2024 2:30
Workshop 3	Peacemaking in the Classroom	How God's Word provides a pathway for turning relationships around.	Rod Hutton	Faith Biblical Counseling	All	He has earned a BA in Prelaw, BS in History Education, and MS in Education Administration from Pensacola Christian College. Rod Hutton and his wife Kathy have been married for 35 years. The Hutton's came to Lafayette on assignment with the Navy to Purdue University which afforded the opportunity to attend Faith Bible Seminary. In 2018, Rod retired from Naval Service and joined the staff to lead the efforts in opening and operating the Northend Community Center and in 2019 he was ordained as a pastor with Faith Church. In 2024, he transitioned to the role as Director, Faith Biblical Counseling Ministries and Vision of Hope, a women's residential counseling ministry.	9/26/2024 1:40	9/26/2024 2:30
Workshop 4	Maximizing Pastoral Compensation at Tax Time	We will cover the most tax-efficient ways to compensate Pastors during both their tenure and their retirement. We will discuss financial and non-financial compensation.	Ben Franklin	Franklin Wealth Advisors	All	Ben is the Managing Director and Senior Wealth Advisor at Franklin Wealth Advisors, Inc. Personally, he has almost 4 decades of experience in the financial services industry. He has provided comprehensive financial planning services to clients in all walks of life. Ben and his wonderful wife Charlotte have been married for over 37 years and are the proud parents of four grown sons and the even prouder grandparents of fourteen living grandchildren. Ben enjoys traveling, visiting his grandchildren, running, golfing, sudoku, and watching old tv shows (Gunsmoke, Bonanza, Matlock, Columbo).	9/26/2024 3:00	9/26/2024 3:50
Workshop 4	Winning Your Students in Arithmetic	As the elementary arithmetic teacher, you provide essential opportunities for building and mastering necessary arithmetic skills. This session will aid you in making every minute count with an effective review time that develops individual accountability, visualizing concepts in such a way that your students will have those "light-bulb moments"; and engaging reluctant learners through creative lesson introductions.	Brooke Greening	Abeka	Elementary	Miss Brooke Greening taught third grade at Pensacola Christian Academy for seven years before moving into administration in 2007 to serve as principal for 2nd and 3rd grade. In this position, her heart and personal goal is to mentor her faculty and guide them to be more effective in teaching, management, and relationships with students and their parents. Her daily observations in classrooms supply her with many new and fresh ideas which she enjoys sharing with other teachers and adding to her own repertoire as she continually strives to learn and grow. Miss Greening earned her BS in Elementary Education and MS in Educational Administration from Pensacola Christian College.	9/26/2024 3:00	9/26/2024 3:50

Activity type	Workshop Title	Description	Speaker	Organization	Audience	Speaker Bio	Start time	End time	Location
Workshop 4	Biblical Worldview Shaping: Beyond the Basics	So you know about Creation, Fall, Redemption, and you know about Levels 0-3. What's next? Now it's time to dig into some of the important complexities of biblical worldview shaping in education. In these sessions, we will discuss how CFR can help us analyze and evaluate the thorny issues we face as educators. We will also begin to implement a strategy that can start educators in planning out an entire year of instruction.	Dr. Bryan Smith	BJU Press	Secondary	Bryan has worked in Christian education for over 30 years. He has been a classroom teacher as well as a textbook author. Currently, he serves BJU Press as director of Biblical Worldview shaping. In this position he assists authors and teachers in the work of forming a biblical worldview in the classroom. Bryan holds a PhD in Old Testament interpretation.	9/26/2024 3:00	9/26/2024 3:50
Workshop 4	The State of Our Students	The session takes an in-depth look at the testing results of nearly 55,000 students who are involved with the AACS testing program. How are our students doing compared to the national norms? What are the strengths of our students? What are the weaknesses? Attendees of this session will acquire a better understanding of the AACS testing program and learn how to use test results to improve classroom instruction at their school.	Gary Peltier	AACS	All	Gary Peltier, Officer for Assessment and Business Operations of the AACS, holds undergraduate and graduate degrees in education from Bob Jones University. He has served in Christian education as a teacher, assistant school administrator, state association executive director, and board member of the AACS. He currently serves as a member of the AACS Accreditation Commission. He began working in the AACS national office in 2015 and primarily manages the achievement testing program.	9/26/2024 3:00	9/26/2024 3:50
Workshop 4	Dyslexia: 10 things parents want teachers to know	Come hear from a mom of 3 dyslexic learners about the ways that teachers can help bridge the gap for these unique students. We will cover signs, parent frustrations, minor accommodations that can make a major impact, and how to handle undiagnosed processing disorders.	Jennifer Miller	BJU Press	All	Jennifer holds an MS in educational leadership and has been an educator since 1997. Her experience includes both elementary and secondary classroom teaching, technical training for adult learners, and school administration. Jennifer has a love for teaching science, as she spent nearly half of her teaching career as a secondary science teacher. She is currently a national consultant for BJU Press. When she's not teaching, Jennifer enjoys time with family (especially her two grandchildren), photography, and spending time at the beach.	9/26/2024 3:00	9/26/2024 3:50
Workshop 4	How to Informally Assess During Instruction	This workshop is divided into two sections. The first part includes specific information about the types of informal assessments as discussed in the video. The second part provides teacher an opportunity to create informal assessments to implement during and after instruction.	Marlene Reed	Bob Jones University	All	Mrs. Reed has earned a BS in Speech and Language Pathology/Audiology, a BS in Elementary Education, and a MS in Special Education. She has completed training as an Applied Behavior Analysis (ABA) therapist and works with children who have autism. She has been an educator for more than 30 years teaching future special education teachers on the college level and K-12 students in regular classrooms plus teaching at M&G's summer art day camp Kids Create! and serving as a Learning Disabilities (LD) resource teacher and Behavioral Disorders (BD) teacher. She has taught learners with dyslexia, LD, BD, attention deficit/hyperactivity disorders (ADHD), intellectual and development disorders (IDD), and autism spectrum disorders (ASD).	9/26/2024 3:00	9/26/2024 3:50
Workshop 4	Burning Bright Without Burning Out	This session is designed to help teachers influence most effectively without getting pulled in too many directions and facing burn out.	Mike Smith	Pensacola Christian Coll	All	Mr. Mike Smith has been teaching junior high and high school history and Bible classes at Pensacola Christian Academy since 2005. Although students enjoy his quirky humor and engaging teaching style, it is his evident and sincere care for each of them that has earned him the reputation of beloved teacher, not just for students at PCA but for the many he has taught as a video teacher through Abeka Academy. In addition to his school responsibilities, he teaches a weekly adult Sunday school class, leads the four-year-olds in Master Clubs, coaches JV boys basketball, and acts as the camp chapel speaker in the summers for Camp o' the Pines, a Christian summer camp for eight to twelve year olds.	9/26/2024 3:00	9/26/2024 3:50
Workshop 4	The Heart of Christ Through the Handbook	Our rule book while essential, is a means to an end, not the end. In this session we will consider how to use the rule book to reach the heart.	Paul Rebert	Independent	All	He has earned a BA in Prelaw, BS in History Education, and MS in Education Administration from Pensacola Christian College. Paul D. Rebert is the lead pastor at First Baptist Church in Danville, Illinois where he as served for almost thirteen years. He grew up in the Blue Ridge mountains of Winchester, Virginia, and met his wife, Beth of Watertown, Wisconsin, while teaching and coaching in Indiana. He and Beth have three children: Breleigh (18) who is currently in college, Remington (17) a senior in high school, and Kylie (13) who just began 8th grade. He has the privilege to serve on various executive boards such as Baptist Camp Assurance, Baptist World Mission, and is the President of the Illinois Association of Christian Schools. He states that his greatest joy is being husband, father, and pastor. He enjoys supporting the First Baptist Knights, spending time with his church family, Penn State football, and hunting.	9/26/2024 3:00	9/26/2024 3:50
Workshop 4	Biblical Communication	Tools for using words well in the classroom, breakroom, and living room.	Rod Hutton	Faith Biblical Counseling	All	Rod Hutton and his wife Kathy have been married for 35 years. The Hutton's came to Lafayette on assignment with the Navy to Purdue University which afforded the opportunity to attend Faith Bible Seminary. In 2018, Rod retired from Naval Service and joined the staff to lead the efforts in opening and operating the Northend Community Center and in 2019 he was ordained as a pastor with Faith Church. In 2024, he transitioned to the role as Director, Faith Biblical Counseling Ministries and Vision of Hope, a women's residential counseling ministry.	9/26/2024 3:00	9/26/2024 3:50
Workshop 4	When Jeopardy Isn't Enough: Improving Games in the Classroom	What if the problem with my classroom games isn't student motivation--what if my game-plan is the problem? In this session we will discuss factors that affect game success, compare traditional and web-based educational games, and of course, we will play some of the games ourselves!	Sarah Weidenburner	First Baptist School	Secondary	Sarah Weidenburner has been teaching secondary English at First Baptist Christian School for 15 years. She is a graduate of Bob Jones University and Liberty University. Sarah assisted the administration in updating manuals and completing the self-study and curriculum guide for the AACS Accreditation process.	9/26/2024 3:00	9/26/2024 3:50
Workshop 5	These are a Few of my Favorite Apps (K-3)	Expand your children's knowledge and reinforce key curriculum concepts with educational apps. You will receive a demonstration of how to effectively engage your young students using only one iPad in a classroom setting. Previous iPad experience is not necessary.	Anita Sedivy	Bob Jones University	Early Elementary	Anita holds a BS in elementary education and a MEd in secondary education. She has taught in Christian education for 30 years teaching a variety of math courses from 6th grade math to high school algebra both in the classroom and through distance learning. She also has experience as a childcare director and preschool administrator. When she is away from school she enjoys serving in her local church, reading, cooking, and spending time with her husband and daughter.	9/27/2024 8:30	9/27/2024 9:20
Workshop 5	An Outward Expression of an Inward Change	Can you and your students say that Bible time is your favorite part of the day? Refresh yourself with tips on effectively teaching your students character qualities based on specific Bible characters and highlighting spiritual applications through effective story-telling using the Abeka curriculum. You'll also walk away with creative ways to engage your class through songs and Scripture memory.	Brooke Greening	Abeka	Elementary	Miss Brooke Greening taught third grade at Pensacola Christian Academy for seven years before moving into administration in 2007 to serve as principal for 2nd and 3rd grade. In this position, her heart and personal goal is to mentor her faculty and guide them to be more effective in teaching, management, and relationships with students and their parents. Her daily observations in classrooms supply her with many new and fresh ideas which she enjoys sharing with other teachers and adding to her own repertoire as she continually strives to learn and grow. Miss Greening earned her BS in Elementary Education and MS in Educational Administration from Pensacola Christian College.	9/27/2024 8:30	9/27/2024 9:20

Activity type	Workshop Title	Description	Speaker	Organization	Audience	Speaker Bio	Start time	End time	Location
Workshop 5	How Do We Keep from Losing Our Kids?	You've seen the polls, and you've heard the stories. Many of our young people leave the Christian faith not long after they graduate from Christian schools. These departures often seem like sudden, rash decisions. But they rarely are. Behind them is usually a long process of wrong thinking. Confronting that process and disrupting it are some of the most important things we can do as Christian educators. In this session we will consider how we can be more effective at passing on our faith to the next generation.	Dr. Bryan Smith	BJU Press	All	Bryan has worked in Christian education for over 30 years. He has been a classroom teacher as well as a textbook author. Currently, he serves BJU Press as director of Biblical Worldview shaping. In this position he assists authors and teachers in the work of forming a biblical worldview in the classroom. Bryan holds a PhD in Old Testament interpretation.	9/27/2024 8:30	9/27/2024 9:20
Workshop 5	Applications and Tools for Understanding the Illinois TEAACH Act (Teaching Equitable Asian American Community History)	In 2021, the state of Illinois signed off on the Teaching Equitable Asian American Community History (TEAACH) Act mandating public K-12 institutions to incorporate Asian American history in the curriculum. This workshop is geared towards applying elements of the TEAACH Act in Christian education that fulfills our missional calling and elevating Christ-centered community. This workshop will include tools and possible resources that can help K-12 teachers incorporate Asian American history and culture in the classroom.	Dr. Matthew Werstler, Justine Werstler	Marquette Manor Baptist	All	Mrs. Justine Werstler is the Elementary Supervisor at her alma mater, Marquette Manor Baptist Academy. Prior to that role, she taught a 3rd and 4th grade combined class at MMBA for 7 years and worked with Kindergarten-2nd grade students at a public charter school for 2 years. She received her BA in Elementary Education from Wheaton College and is currently pursuing her Master's in Literacy Education-Reading Specialist at Northern Illinois University. She and her husband, Matthew, enjoy playing music together and reading stories to their 5-month-old daughter, Naomi. Mr. Matthew Werstler is an Admissions Counselor at Northern Illinois University (NIU) and an adjunct lecturer in Humanities at College of DuPage. He received a BA in Music and an MA in Biblical Studies from Moody. He also received an MM in World Music at NIU where he is currently pursuing a PhD in Geography with a graduate certificate in Public Health. Previously at NIU, Matthew was a graduate assistant for the Center for Southeast Asian Studies and Asian American Certificate Program and studied Thai as a Foreign Language Area Studies (FLAS) Fellow from 2020-2022. Prior to his studies at NIU, he taught English at Youjiang Medical University for Nationalities in Guangxi, China. He has played viola in several orchestras in the Chicagoland area and enjoys serving music ministries globally. Matthew enjoys going on walks with his wife, Justine, and their 5-month-old daughter, Naomi.	9/27/2024 8:30	9/27/2024 9:20
Workshop 5	Let's Talk Shop: All Things Band	Bring your questions and experiences to this session where we tackle common conundrums band teachers face.	Jennifer Taylor		Elementary, Secondary	Jennifer graduated from Southern Illinois University in 1998 in music education. She has taught for 22 years in K-12 general music, band, chorus, guitar class, and theatre. She now focuses on teaching private lessons, directing a pep band for local homeschoolers, and music in the church. Jennifer has been married for 26 years and has twin 16-year-old boys. She loves spending time with family, physical fitness, country bike rides, kayaking, and mornings on the porch with her Bible, yellow lab, and a good cup of coffee.	9/27/2024 8:30	9/27/2024 9:20	Music Suite
Workshop 5	Hope for the Weary Teacher	Help and hope from God's Word when we are feeling overcome.	Kathy Hutton	Faith Biblical Counseling	All	Kathy Hutton and her husband Rod have been members of Faith Church in Lafayette since 2015. She graduated from Faith Bible Seminary with a Masters in Biblical Counseling in June 2022. She began working for Faith Christian School as their Biblical Counselor in August 2022. Kathy also serves with her husband who is the Pastor of Faith North Campus and serves as a Biblical Counselor with Faith Biblical Counseling Ministries and Vision of Hope, a women's residential counseling ministry. Kathy and Rod have 5 children, Chris, Tim, Malia, Gracie and Josie.	9/27/2024 8:30	9/27/2024 9:20
Workshop 5	The Classical Model: Learning with God's Design in Mind	The Classical Model was used for years before modern education took over with ideas of "new educational methods." The Classical Model taught our forefathers three languages before they finished the 8th grade. But does this approach really work today? A brief look at the past to help us better focus on methods that have led to educational flourishing since the very beginning.	Leesa Chesnut		All	Leesa Chesnut is an educator at heart. She has taught in public, private, and homeschool settings for nearly 30 years, currently with LAUNCH in Catlin, IL. She recently received her certificate as a Wilson Dyslexia Practitioner from Wilson Reading Academy, and she is currently half way through completing a full English grammar curriculum. Leesa is also trained as a Certified Christian Color Analyst and Image Consultant with Style By Color. She owns Captivating By Design, a company that empowers women from the inside out to look and feel healthy: spiritually, physically, emotionally, and mentally. Leesa is the 22 year wife of Alan and the couple reside in Central Illinois with their four sons.	9/27/2024 8:30	9/27/2024 9:20
Workshop 5	Pastors' and Administrators' Breakfast & IACS Board Meeting	Starts at 8 am Breakfast provided for Pastors, Administrators, and IACS Board Members. IACS Board Meeting to follow. Learning and academic success does not occur accidentally. All learners need tools to help them experience academic success. Teachers are the key to providing the tools. This workshop explores the various tools to facilitate academic success for struggling learners and to provide both teachers and students with effective learning tools that promote academic success.	Mark Mcvey	IACS	Pastors and Administrators		9/27/2024 8:30	9/27/2024 9:20
Workshop 5	Providing Elementary Struggling Learners the Tools for Success		Marlene Reed	Bob Jones University	Elementary	Mrs. Reed has earned a BS in Speech and Language Pathology/Audiology, a BS in Elementary Education, and a MS in Special Education. She has completed training as an Applied Behavior Analysis (ABA) line therapist and works with children who have autism. She has been an educator for more than 30 years teaching future special education teachers on the college level and K-12 students in regular classrooms plus teaching at M&G's summer art day camp Kids Create! and serving as a Learning Disabilities (LD) resource teacher and Behavioral Disorders (BD) teacher. She has taught learners with dyslexia, LD, BD, attention deficit/hyperactivity disorders (ADHD), intellectual and development disorders (IDD), and autism spectrum disorders (ASD).	9/27/2024 8:30	9/27/2024 9:20
Workshop 5	Teaching and Reaching Outside the Box: How to Connect With Teens	Through the idea that more is caught than what is taught, the teacher must reach the heart of the student. This session discusses a variety of ways the teacher can build relationships with the students that go beyond the classroom.	Mike Smith	Abeka	Secondary	Mr. Mike Smith has been teaching junior high and high school history and Bible classes at Pensacola Christian Academy since 2005. Although students enjoy his quirky humor and engaging teaching style, it is his evident and sincere care for each of them that has earned him the reputation of beloved teacher, not just for students at PCA but for the many he has taught as a video teacher through Abeka Academy. In addition to his school responsibilities, he teaches a weekly adult Sunday school class, leads the four-year-olds in Master Clubs, coaches JV boys basketball, and acts as the camp chapel speaker in the summers for Camp o' the Pines, a Christian summer camp for eight to twelve year olds. He has earned a BA in Prelaw, BS in History Education, and MS in Education Administration from Pensacola Christian College.	9/27/2024 8:30	9/27/2024 9:20
Workshop 6	These are a Few of my Favorite Apps (4-8)	Expand your students' knowledge and reinforce key curriculum concepts with educational apps. You will receive a demonstration of how to effectively engage your upper elementary and middle school students using only one iPad in a classroom setting. Previous iPad experience is not necessary.	Anita Sedivy	Bob Jones University	Upper Elementary	Anita holds a BS in elementary education and a MEd in secondary education. She has taught in Christian education for 30 years teaching a variety of math courses from 6th grade math to high school algebra both in the classroom and through distance learning. She also has experience as a childcare director and preschool administrator. When she is away from school she enjoys serving in her local church, reading, cooking, and spending time with her husband and daughter.	9/27/2024 9:30	9/27/2024 10:20

Activity type	Workshop Title	Description	Speaker	Organization	Audience	Speaker Bio	Start time	End time	Location
Workshop 6	Financial Q&A	Bring your questions all things financial!	Ben Franklin	Franklin Wealth Advisors	All	Ben is the Managing Director and Senior Wealth Advisor at Franklin Wealth Advisors, Inc. Personally, he has almost 4 decades of experience in the financial services industry. He has provided comprehensive financial planning services to clients in all walks of life. Ben and his wonderful wife Charlotte have been married for over 37 years and are the proud parents of four grown sons and the even prouder grandparents of fourteen living grandchildren. Ben enjoys traveling, visiting his grandchildren, running, golfing, sudoku, and watching old tv shows (Gunsmoke, Bonanza, Matlock, Columbo). Ben is very active with Nehemiah Project International Ministries. Through NPIM, he has taught courses in Biblical Entrepreneurship in four states, as well as South Africa. He is also a member of Kingdom Advisors, the National Association of Christian Financial Counselors, the Financial Services Institute, and is a past president of the Central IL Council of the Financial Planning Association.	9/27/2024 9:30	9/27/2024 10:20
Workshop 6	BJU Press Trove for Teachers	Meet the newest educational technology innovation from BJU Press. Streamline your classroom workload and engage learners like never before. Access an extensive resource library, build and share lesson plans, create digital and print assessments, and more.	Benjamin Vaduva	BJU Press	All	Benjamin is the Territory Manager for BJU Press – Precept Marketing serving schools in Illinois, Iowa, Minnesota, and Wisconsin. He is married to Maria and together they have 10 children. Born in Romania, he came to Chicago in April of 1989, at the age 15. He obtained his bachelor's degree in electrical engineering from Case Western Reserve University. In 2006, he started an Independent Insurance Agency in Cleveland, OH. With all the kids attending Logos Christian Academy in Niles IL, Benjamin serves on the board of the school and volunteered as a substitute teacher. (For more info click here https://mylogos.org/board-governance)	9/27/2024 9:30	9/27/2024 10:20	207
Workshop 6	Partnering with Students and Families for Post-High School Endeavors	IACS-affiliated schools have a unique privilege in serving students and families during their formative years. As high school students consider post-graduation plans, understanding possible studies, careers, or the college application process can be daunting. This workshop brings the perspectives of two presenters who come from various educational backgrounds and workplaces in Christian and public institutions yet have similar passions in serving Christ. Whether students pursue post-secondary education through like-minded or public institutions, this workshop will discuss challenges and unique opportunities in guiding students and families with grace in post-high school endeavors.	Dr. Matthew Werstler, Jonathan Nham	Marquette Manor Baptist	Secondary	Mr. Matthew Werstler is an Admissions Counselor at Northern Illinois University (NIU) and an adjunct lecturer in Humanities at College of DuPage. He received a BA in Music and an MA in Biblical Studies from Moody. He also received an MM in World Music at NIU where he is currently pursuing a PhD in Geography with a graduate certificate in Public Health. Previously at NIU, Matthew was a graduate assistant for the Center for Southeast Asian Studies and Asian American Certificate Program and studied Thai as a Foreign Language Area Studies (FLAS) Fellow from 2020-2022. Prior to his studies at NIU, he taught English at Youjiang Medical University for Nationalities in Guangxi, China. He has played viola in several orchestras in the Chicagoland area and enjoys serving music ministries globally. Matthew enjoys going on walks with his wife, Justine, and their 5-month-old daughter, Naomi. Mr. Jonathan Nham wears many hats at his alma mater, Marquette Manor Baptist Academy. He teaches a variety of subjects in both middle and high school and serves as the assistant soccer coach, Bible quiz coach, and speech coach. He holds a BA in English from Wheaton College and is currently pursuing a Master's in Artistic Administration from Regent University. Outside of work, he enjoys spending time with his 5-month-old niece, Naomi.	9/27/2024 9:30	9/27/2024 10:20
Workshop 6	Setting Your Sub Up for Success	What exactly do substitutes need to enter an unfamiliar classroom? Tricks of the trade can make a teacher's day off much more enjoyable and put your students at ease whether or not the sub was planned for or a surprise!	Gretchen Huesmann	Independent	All	Gretchen Huesmann began her speaking ministry as a young mom involved in mom's groups and leading Bible studies, in between teaching littles in the classroom and raising her family. She is a long-time blogger and an award-winning author penning articles, devotions, and children's stories. Gretchen enjoys reading, walking, gardening, cooking, and exploring the outdoors. She and her husband have raised four amazing adult children who share their love of music, nature, and travel.	9/27/2024 9:30	9/27/2024 10:20
Workshop 6	How Emotions Drive your Classroom	How God's Word provides hope and help for fear, anxiety, and anger.	Kathy Hutton	Faith Biblical Counseling	All	Kathy Hutton and her husband Rod have been members of Faith Church in Lafayette since 2015. She graduated from Faith Bible Seminary with a Masters in Biblical Counseling in June 2022. She began working for Faith Christian School as their Biblical Counselor in August 2022. Kathy also serves with her husband who is the Pastor of Faith North Campus and serves as a Biblical Counselor with Faith Biblical Counseling Ministries and Vision of Hope, a women's residential counseling ministry. Kathy and Rod have 5 children, Chris, Tim, Malia, Gracie and Josie.	9/27/2024 9:30	9/27/2024 10:20
Workshop 6	15 Tools for your Teacher Toolbox: Classical Tools that Still Work	This session will look at 15 Classical Tools of Learning that can be used in your classroom next week! We'll spend time walking through each tool & how to use it right away to help your students get more out of the subjects you teach and learning to think deeper about the information all around them.	Leesa Chesnut	Independent	All	Leesa Chesnut is an educator at heart. She has taught in public, private, and homeschool settings for nearly 30 years, currently with LAUNCH in Catlin, IL. She recently received her certificate as a Wilson Dyslexia Practitioner from Wilson Reading Academy, and she is currently half way through completing a full English grammar curriculum. Leesa is also trained as a Certified Christian Color Analyst and Image Consultant with Style By Color. She owns Captivating By Design, a company that empowers women from the inside out to look and feel healthy: spiritually, physically, emotionally, and mentally. Leesa is the 22 year wife of Alan and the couple reside in Central Illinois with their four sons.	9/27/2024 9:30	9/27/2024 10:20
Workshop 6	Providing Secondary Struggling Learners the Tools for Success	Learning and academic success does not occur accidentally. All learners need tools to help them experience academic success. Teachers are the key to providing the tools. This workshop explores the various tools to facilitate academic success for struggling learners and to equip them with effective tools for becoming independent learners.	Marlene Reed	Bob Jones University	Secondary	Mrs. Reed has earned a BS in Speech and Language Pathology/Audiology, a BS in Elementary Education, and a MS in Special Education. She has completed training as an Applied Behavior Analysis (ABA) line therapist and works with children who have autism. She has been an educator for more than 30 years teaching future special education teachers on the college level and K-12 students in regular classrooms plus teaching at M&G's summer art day camp Kids Create! and serving as a Learning Disabilities (LD) resource teacher and Behavioral Disorders (BD) teacher. She has taught learners with dyslexia, LD, BD, attention deficit/hyperactivity disorders (ADHD), intellectual and development disorders (IDD), and autism spectrum disorders (ASD).	9/27/2024 9:30	9/27/2024 10:20
Workshop 6	Purpose, Planning, and Implementation of Extracurricular Clubs	The idea of clubs can be intimidating, but this session will illustrate how any school can incorporate clubs into its program to enrich the school experience for the students.	Mike Smith	Abeka	Secondary, Upper Elementary	Mr. Mike Smith has been teaching junior high and high school history and Bible classes at Pensacola Christian Academy since 2005. Although students enjoy his quirky humor and engaging teaching style, it is his evident and sincere care for each of them that has earned him the reputation of beloved teacher, not just for students at PCA but for the many he has taught as a video teacher through Abeka Academy. In addition to his school responsibilities, he teaches a weekly adult Sunday school class, leads the four-year-olds in Master Clubs, coaches JV boys basketball, and acts as the camp chapel speaker in the summers for Camp o' the Pines, a Christian summer camp for eight to twelve year olds. He has earned a BA in Prelaw, BS in History Education, and MS in Education Administration from Pensacola Christian College.	9/27/2024 9:30	9/27/2024 10:20
Workshop 6	Completing Accreditation without Losing Your Mind	In this session, we will focus on organizing and planning the (daunting!) task of completing a school's accreditation documentation. Some information on planning for accreditation visits will also be discussed. A question-and-answer time will be included.	Sarah Weidenburner	First Baptist School	All	Sarah Weidenburner has been teaching secondary English at First Baptist Christian School for 15 years. She is a graduate of Bob Jones University and Liberty University. Sarah assisted the administration in updating manuals and completing the self-study and curriculum guide for the AACCS Accreditation process.	9/27/2024 9:30	9/27/2024 10:20	